11 members of parliament since 1918. 491 women have been elected as members of the House of Commons, the statistics in corporate Australia are even more concerning. The EOWA 2010 Australian Census of Women in Leadership shows that only 8.4% of board directorships are held by women. Further, 54% of ASX200 companies had no women board directors in 2010. A number which has steadily increased from 49.7% since 2004, the number of women serving on FTSE boards since 2011.

The winning of hearts and minds and overwhelmingly supportive stakeholder feedback all provide clear evidence that the UK's approach is working. The FTSE 350 has more women than ever before serving on their boards with 550 new women appointments in just over four years.
